

Presentation: Student Leader Training

This interactive presentation is delivered to university student leaders involved in planning events. The presentation aims to equip students with a basic understanding of issues relating to sexual trauma and covers skills in responding effectively to a disclosure of sexual assault.

Topics

- Prevalence and trends in Australia
- Sexual assault and sexual coercion
- Consent and the law
- Community attitudes and dispelling myths
- Emerging issues in sexual assault
- The impacts of sexual assault
- Skills for responding effectively
- Deciding a course of action
- Resources and referral options

Please note- sexual harassment is not covered in this presentation.

Details

- Delivered face-to-face; 2 hours at your facility
- Tuesday or Wednesday
- $420 fee
- Facilitated by an experienced SARC trainer
- Maximum of 35 participants
- Participants need to bring a pen
- The requesting University or college is expected to have a supervisor in attendance at the presentation to assist with specific queries and to manage any disruptions that may arise

Please note - presentations may be delivered online when pandemic or distance issues arise.

At the conclusion of the SARC presentation, a university representative may like to add a brief presentation on specific campus safety measures, guidelines and procedures that are relevant to university event planners.

SARC Education and Training

Email training enquiries and requests to: SARCTraining@health.wa.gov.au

Further information and resources: SARC website

The Sexual Assault Resource Centre (SARC)

- 24-hour crisis medical, forensic and counselling support following a sexual assault
- Counselling for recent and past sexual assault and sexual abuse
- State-wide education and training

24-hour crisis line for recent sexual assault

Telephone (08) 6458 1828 or 1800 199 888 (free from land line only)

Crisis telephone support

8.30am - 11.00pm daily
Telephone (08) 6458 1828