

6 March, 2012

Deb Gear- A/ Evidence Based Clinical Guidelines Coordinator

Obstetric and Gynaecology Clinical Care Unit

Notification of UPDATED Guidelines February 2012

SECTION A

2.6.7.1 Discharge of a Patient from Labour & Birth Suite, the Maternal Fetal Assessment Unit and Emergency Centre at KEMH- Changes to documents and follow up communication

2.6.7.2 Discharge of a patient- midwifery / nursing considerations - Changes to documents and follow up communication

1.13 Recognising and responding to clinical deterioration- Changes to frequency of Obs for Obstetric and Gynae Patients

SECTION B

2.6.1 Preterm Prelabour Rupture of Membranes- Medical and Midwifery Management- CRP/LVS only if clinically indicated, Corticosteroids to be administered following discussion with senior medical/ paediatric team and parents between 23-34 wks gestation

2.6.2 Maternal Fetal Assessment Unit – quick reference guide suspected preterm prelabour rupture of membranes

2.6.3 Maternal Fetal Assessment Unit – quick reference guide confirmed preterm prelabour rupture of membranes outpatient management

2.6.4 Quick Reference Guide- Expectant Care of the Woman and Fetus on the obstetrics wards

6.2.2.1 Post Partum - Bladder Care- several changes to volumes, Trial of Void, management, new flow chart

7.5 Guidelines for Midwives attending Caesarean Sections

8.1.1 Breastfeeding- General Overview

8.1.6 Showing the Woman How to Breastfeed

8.1.2 Professional Development Requirements for staff

8.2.6 Management of Mastitis

7.1 Pre- Admission Clinic for Births by Elective Caesarean Section

3.1.7 Diabetic Ketoacidosis (DKA) Management

6.2.3.1 Transfer of a Postnatal Woman to Home/ Visiting Midwifery Service / GP care

SECTION C

SECTION F

SECTION P

FAMILY BIRTH CENTRE

WITHDRAWN

Diabetes in Pregnancy-B. 3.1.12 Intrapartum Care – includes induction of labour / caesarean section plan- Now split into 3 new guidelines- See New Guidelines